

Acquisitions and merger seminar set March 28

Business owners seeking innovative ways to expand their companies are invited to attend the conference, "Keys to Successful Acquisitions for Corporate Growth," to be held March 28 at the Doubletree Hotel at Warren Place.

The event is sponsored by The M&A Source, a division of the International Business Brokers Association. It is the world's largest international organization of experienced, dedicated merger and acquisition intermediaries, and was established in 1991 to address the professional issues of merger and acquisition professionals.

The Tulsa event is co-chaired by Rob Firestone and John C. Johnson, co-owners of Bluestem Resources Affiliated Group.

Business owners and advisers attending will be given an inside view of the strategic use of acquisitions, mergers and divestitures to fuel corporate growth and success for companies in the state.

The conference will feature multiple panels of experts in the merger and acquisition industry, including intermediaries, private equity groups, attorneys, tax advisers and commercial lenders.

Keynote speaker will be Scott Klososky, former chief executive officer of three successful companies including a Soviet/American joint venture, and a nationally known speaker on business leadership and turnaround expertise.

For more information, visit the Bluestem Resources Web site at www.bluestemresources.com, or The M&A Source Web site at www.masource.org.